Welspun India Ltd (WIL) reported an encouraging set of numbers, exceeding our expectations on the profitability front during 1QFY15. We continue to be confident on the WIL's home textile business and its growth prospects on a long term basis. Valuations continue to remain fairly attractive. Hence, we maintain our BUY rating with a target price of Rs293, which implies an upside of 23%.

Healthy pace of growth

WIL recorded revenue of Rs11.5 bn during 1QFY15, up 21.4% YoY basis. Terry Towels continued to operate at almost full utilization even on an augmented capacity of 50000MTA, while sheet utilization was at 85% and rugs & carpets at 53%. Considering the capex plans of the company and the favourable position that Indian textiles finds itself with regards to cost competitiveness, we expect the growth rates to remain in the mid teens on a near term basis.

EBITDA margins ride high on tail winds

EBITDA was up 24.5% YoY at Rs2506 mn. EBITDA margins at 21.9% were marginally up by 54 bps on YoY basis. The backward integration effort coupled with favorable cotton prices and continuation of certain govt incentives positively impacted margins. The management remains confident of delivering these kinds of margins on a sustainable basis.

Bottomline also healthy

Adjusted PAT stood at Rs1050 mn during 1QFY14 up 16.8% on a YoY basis. Adjusted PAT showed slower growth than EBITDA on the back of higher taxes and higher interest cost on expiry of 3% interest subvention on working capital debt and higher LT debt due to capex activities.

Valuation & Conclusion

WIL is trading at 4.1x FY16E earnings compared to FY16E ROE of 28.7%. We expect topline and bottomline to compound at 18% and 153% respectively during the period FY14-FY16E. Considering the attractive valuation and healthy growth we maintain our BUY rating with a TP of Rs.293.
